

BFAME Awards February 2013

It's that time of the year again when the BFAME Awards are presented, and Highbury was well represented, as usual.

Many congratulations to Richard Cogzell for winning the L Boughton Chatwin Memorial Trophy for Most Outstanding Male Performance as Felix in "Humble Boy", and to Barbara Garrett and the whole team of "Humble Boy" for winning the Arcadian Trophy for Technical Achievement. Well done!

The complete list of nominations and winners is as follows:

The Savoy Cup for Most Outstanding Female Performance - Drama

Denise Phillips "Humble Boy" by Highbury Players

Jane Aston "Blood Brothers" by Trinity Players

Liz Plumptre "Misery" by Sutton Arts Theatre

Winner – Liz Plumptre

The L Boughton Chatwin Memorial Trophy For Most Outstanding Male Performance - Drama

Richard Cogzell "Humble Boy" by Highbury Players

Rob Phillips and Wiley Bowkett "The Sunshine Boys" by Highbury Players

Patrick Ward "Misery" by Sutton Arts Theatre

Robert Newton "Don't Dress For Dinner" by The Grange Players

Winner – Richard Cogzell

The Brodribb Cup for Direction – Drama

Barbara Garrett "Humble Boy" by Highbury Players

Gary Simmons "Blood Brothers" by Trinity Players

Claire Armstrong Mills "Misery" by Sutton Arts Theatre

Christopher Water "Don't Dress For Dinner" by the Grange Players

Winner – Christopher Water

The Emile Littler Cup for Best Set – Drama

Billesley Players for "The Heiress"

Grange Players for "The Happiest Days of Your Life"

Highbury Players for "No Sex Please, We're British"

Sutton Arts Theatre for "Misery"

Winner – Sutton Arts Theatre

The Roy and Betty Gaunt Cup for Best Supporting Cast – Drama

Highbury Players "Servant to Two Masters"

Stage 2 "Our Town"

Trinity Players "Blood Brothers"

Grange Players "Don't Dress for Dinner"

Winner – Grange Players "Don't Dress For Dinner"

The Arcadian Trophy for Technical Achievement – Drama

"Humble Boy" by Highbury Players

"Misery" by Sutton Arts Theatre

"Don't Dress For Dinner" Grange Players

Winner "Humble Boy"

The Philip Rodway Memorial Trophy for Drama Group

Winner "Misery" by Sutton Arts Theatre