'Coasts and Gardens'

Carol and David White

This is the third joint Exhibition by Carol and David. They are showing work based upon places they have seen on their holidays, mainly in Cornwall, that have inspired them to paint.

Carol is showing her acrylic paintings of coastal scenes and gardens while David shows mixed-media oils developed from his earlier set of linocuts of Cornish Harbours.

They are both members of the Birmingham Art Circle and David is also President of the Easel Club and a member of the Royal Birmingham Society of Artists.
